College*

Dear Members of the Class of 2002,

The time has come for you to go forward to new stages in your lives and careers. All of us on the faculty and staff have enjoyed working with you, and we wish you well in your future endeavors. We feel confident that you are well prepared and ready to take on the challenges and opportunities that await you.

The autumn of 1998 seems like only a few months ago. That is when most of you began your journey at York College. New places and faces, as well as a big change in your interactions with family members, made those days ones of many adjustments and adaptations. The years and courses have flown by, and you've made it to graduation day. Well done!

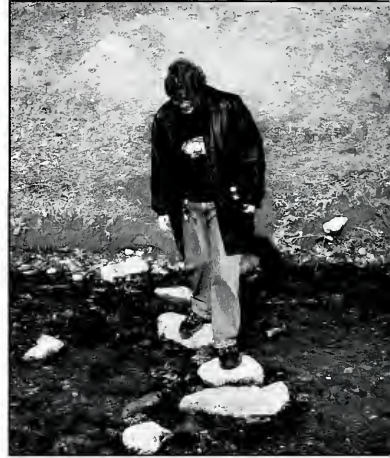

Although your time at York College, at least as an undergraduate student, is coming to a close, your affiliation with your classmates and with York College as an institution should go on into the future. I hope you will stay in touch with each other, and that you will remain interested in and supportive of your alma mater.

York College makes its mark on the world through the achievements of its graduates. We on campus will thus follow your successes in future years with interest and pride. Please remember that you will always be a member of the York College Community.

Stop by and see us when you can! You are always welcome on campus and will be among friends.

Sincerely,
George W. Waldner

The View around Campus: What attracted you to York College?

When students first come to York College, what is the first thing they notice? The creek? The bridge that connects the two sides of campus? The various playing fields? Whatever it might be, York College is a beautiful campus that all can enjoy.

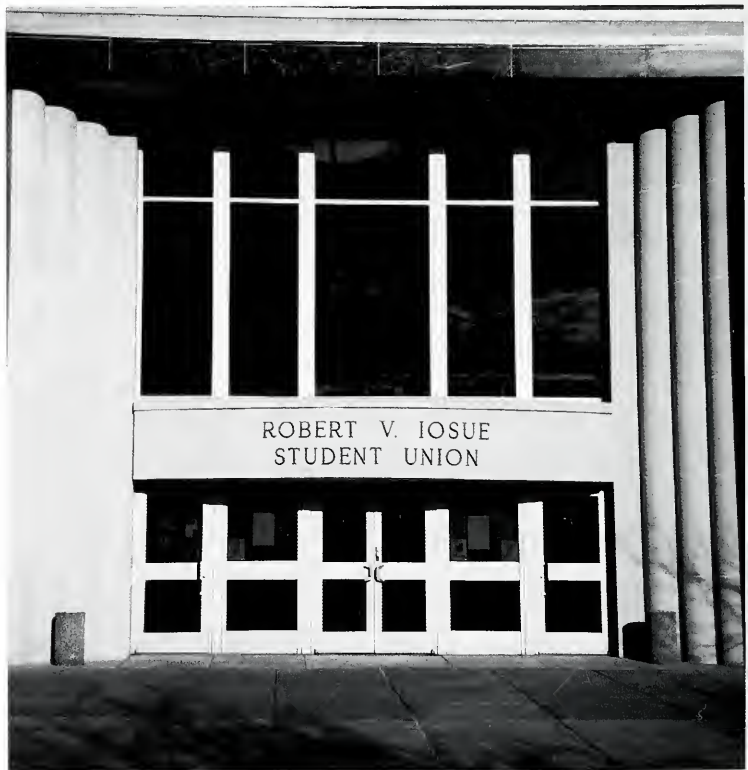

Campbell Hall is the building where most of the students have their classes. It also holds the Coffee Cart, which is a popular place to hang out in between classes

Wolf Gymnasium is where all of the Spartan Athletes work out, as well as where the fitness center and pool are located. You will find many student here at any time of the day.

The majority of the student body can say they practically live in the Robert V. Iosue Student Union. It holds the cafeteria, Sparts Den, Campus Programming, the Spartan office, the Horizon office, Security, as well as the many meeting rooms such as Buechel Lounge and William Walker

The Buildings around Campus

Walking around the York Campus, students will tell you that much of their time spent here is in one of these buildings. Between classes, sports, and extra-curricular activities, there is not one day that can go by without a student stepping into one of York College's buildings.

Schmidt Library is where you will find many hard working York College students. As well as being a quiet place to study, it also holds the Periodical Room and Audio/Video section

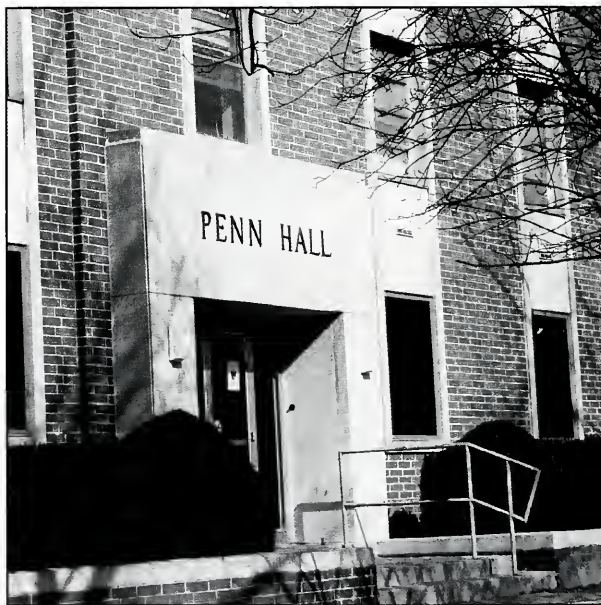

York College's very own Chapel

The Wolf Academic Center (WAC) is the location of the learning resource center

The Life Science is another building that many students have their classes in. It is also the building where many of the professors have their office hours. The Business Administration building is the location of the computer labs. Many students take the time to come here and get some extra work done, as well as finishing up papers and other assignments

Life

Spring

This year's Spring Weekend took place on May 5th and everyone came out to enjoy the beautiful weather and various activities. The activities that people participated in included the dunk tank, sumo wrestling, and volleyball. There were also many tables set up by many of the organizations on campus.

Student Musicians

To many college students, the weekdays seem routine, but thanks to the many clubs and organizations here at York College, there is always an event to look forward to. The Coffee House and Open Mic Nights, sponsored by CAB, were two popular events this year at York. Open Mic Night, held in Sparts Den, and the Coffee House, held in the Manor South Lobby, proved to be enjoyable evenings. Many students showed up to show off their musical talent, and even more came to enjoy the show. The majority of performers were musicians, but the spotlight was open for all kinds of talent. When we look back on our experiences, events such as these will remain in the minds of York College students for years to come.

Sports

Par Eight

The Spartan Golf team of eight golfers had an outstanding season. Not only did they finish fifth at the Top Flite Ocean City Classic, but they also finished fifth at the LVC invite, third at the Franklin & Marshall Tournament, fifth at Susquehanna University Fall Golf Classic and fourth at the Gettysburg Invitational. They had a very successful season and hope to have the same, if not better, seasons in the future.

Seventh Straight Winning Season

After a season of ups and downs the Spartan Field Hockey team came out on top with a 14-5 winning season, and 3-2 in the Capital Athletic Conference. This season was the seventh winning season in a row for the team. Seniors Lauren Guzman and Sandra Lancaster were named South Region Second-team All-Americans. Coach Vicki Sutton won her 100th game of her career the last game of this season. The team was full of players who put their all into the sport and they also proved time and time again that they knew how to get the job done when it came to winning.

Both the Men's and Women's Cross-Country teams had strong seasons this year. The Women placed 23rd out of 34 teams at the NCAA Division III Mid-east Regional and the first runner to finish for the women was senior Season Hanson with a time of 20:44. The Men's team sent three runners to the competition. For the second time in his career, senior Jason Cook, was named to the second team of the All Capital Athletic Conference.

Hard Work All Around

The Spartan Volleyball team could not have asked for a better start to their season with a 3-0 victory over Lancaster Bible College. At the end of the season they had a 10-20 record, with good effort and energy from all players. Sophomore Kerry Casperson was named to the 2001 Capital Athletic Conference second-team All-CAC squad. The only member leaving the team this season is senior Laurie Meadows, the team captain. In her last season on the team, Meadows accomplished 39 service aces and 231 digs. Over all the team had 255 service aces and 1477 digs.

Slow Start Big Finish

The Men's Soccer team got off to a slow start this season losing both games in the Christopher Newport Tournament. However, they quickly recovered and won the Methodist College Tournament a week later. By the seasons end they had a 14-7 winning record, and 4-3 in the Capital Athletic Conference. Sophomore Jeremy Klunk was named to the Adidas/NSCAA Division III All-South men's soccer third team. While junior Derek Cesarz and senior Jared Bird were named to the second-team of the All Capital Athletic Conference.

Had a 'Kickin' Season

The woman's soccer team ended this season with a 14-5 winning season, 5-2 in the CAC. Sophomores Maria Chesnavage and Jodi Redcay were named to the Capital Athletic Conference first-team, while sophomore Ashli Phillips and senior Laura Kiefer were named to the Capital Athletic Conference second-team. Along with the players being honored Coach Vicki Sterner was named as the Capital Athletic Conference Coach of the Year.

Winning Records all Around

After a long winning season the Spartans lost 108-100 to Marymount University in the Semifinals of the Capital Athletic Conference. Previously in the season the Spartans beat Marymount University in the last regular season game. The 20-5 winning record was the best Men's Basketball has ever seen at York College. Earlier in the season, Coach Jeff Gamber, had his 300th career win and it could not have been done with a better team.

New Record Set

The Woman's Basketball team set a new record this season winning 17 games in the regular season, beating the old record, which was set in 1999. The Spartans made it to the Capital Athletic Conference semifinals beating Mary Washington College 57-39. The semifinals were the last game of the season, losing to Marymount University 74-54. Overall, the Spartans had a very strong and impressive season.

Catherine Elliot is ahead of the pack and ready to make a basket.

Defeat never Conquers

The York College Men's Lacrosse team finished their season with a win against the University of Scranton. Spartan Evan Mazzocchi made a career-high 24 saves to earn the win, and Scott Hermes received a game-high four goals as he played his final game as a York Spartan. Hermes leaves the team as the Spartans' all-time leading goal scorer and point scorer. He ends his career with 104 goals and 49 assists for 153 points. Also in the season Scott and Jason Kemper were named to the All-Capital Athletic Conference. Congratulations.

Keeping the Spirit Up

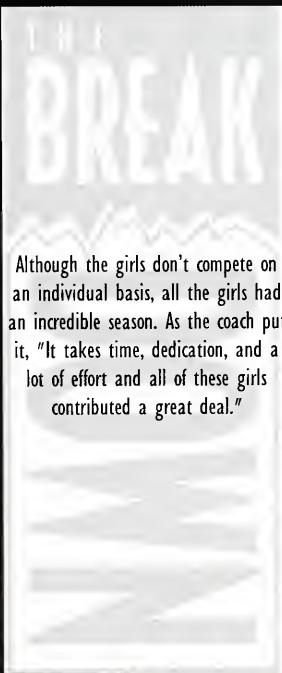

Weekend and night practices, hard work, and dedication make the cheerleaders a strong squad. Each girl must try out every year to make the new squad and Coach Debbie Gunnet says that this year has been one of her favorite years.

Although the girls don't compete on an individual basis, all the girls had an incredible season. As the coach put it, "It takes time, dedication, and a lot of effort and all of these girls contributed a great deal."

Spartan named Player of the Year

Eight York College baseball players were named to the 2002 CAC All-Conference teams. The Spartans also had the league's Player-of-the-Year as senior shortstop Matt Day was announced as the conference's top player. Day was joined by five teammates, John-Paul Gallo, Bob Ancharski, Travis Gaidos, Ed Meister and Dave Ellis. The baseball team had an outstanding season and will continue to do so in the future.

On your mark, get set, go!

The York College Men's Track team fought long and hard and came home with a fifth place finish at the CAC Championships. York grabbed two first place finishes as Keith Williamson clocked in with a time of 11.4 in the 100 meter dash and Tim Johnson threw 55.35 m, which was a stadium and CAC meet record. Both Williamson & Johnson earned first-team All-CAC honors. Congratulations.

Swing, hit, homerun

The CAC Championship began with a tight competition against the Eagles of Mary Washington. The Spartan offense was led by Staci Lehn as she banged out two hits while she collected York's two RBIs. Shannon Miller & Karla Seyler each collected two hits for the green and white. As a result of the competition, Spartans won with a final score of 3-2.

York College Welcomes Lifehouse

On October 3rd, 2001, at 8 PM in Wolf Gymnasium the band Lifehouse rocked York College. They were preceded by Michelle Branch and The Calling who both got wonderful reviews as opening bands. Then the lights dimmed and the crowd silenced as the band everyone had been waiting for came to the stage. Lifehouse put on an awesome performance that will be remembered for many York College students.

Jason Wade, lead singer of the band, sung the songs that made the band famous. "Hanging by a Moment" was one of their bigger hits. Lifehouse is known for its ability to connect with people, as they have an amazing sound and strong lyrics. Other songs included: "Breathing", "Sick Cycle Carusel", "Somewhere In Between", and "Everything."

Lifehouse were not only well received by the students, but also by the faculty, staff and the general public. One thing is for sure: and that is this concert will not be soon forgotten by York College, for it will leave a lasting impact on everyone who attended. Lifehouse will go down as a wonderful memorable evening for this college.

Along with Michelle Branch & The Calling

Opening for Lifehouse was Michelle Branch, who enters the music world as a teen rock/pop artist unlike the rest. Her music has frequently been reviewed as being more universally felt and relatable to people in general than her teen pop star counterparts. Her hit song "Everywhere" was sung, along with "Sweet Misery".

After Branch, The Calling, who includes Alex Band, lead vocalist, took the stage. Although this band was unfamiliar to many students, after they performed their hit song, "Wherever You Will Go", the band proved to be a huge success.

This has been quite a year for the Horizon Yearbook and I just want to take the time out to thank all those who made this publication possible; especially those who never gave up on the yearbook. I also want to wish good luck to the graduating seniors and also the remaining York College students, no matter where the future takes you. Never lose sight of your dreams.
